

I feel this petition has merit and should be considered a viable solution to amateur radio testing.